

GOVERNOR'S BUDGET TO IMPACT ESTATE AND ELDER LAW PLANNING

Attorney Michele J. Feinstein Leads Conference on Elder Law and Legislative Updates for 2016

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. – Local law firm Shatz, Schwartz and Fentin, P.C., serving Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York, today announced Attorney Michele J. Feinstein will lead a full-day, Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) symposium at The Hotel Northampton, Thursday, June 16. With game-changing case decisions and new emerging regional trends this day-long conference will provide attorneys with an in-depth update on Massachusetts estate planning. The presentation will expound upon how the Governor's budget has potential to influence elder law planning in conjunction with Medicaid.

MCLE is a nonprofit corporation which provides hands-on educational programs and reference materials for attorneys. This continuing education program arranges more than 250 presentations annually in a variety of in-person and online formats.

Attorney Michele J. Feinstein, a shareholder at Shatz, Schwartz and Fentin, P.C., and lifelong resident of Longmeadow, concentrates her practice in the areas of estate planning and administration, elder law, probate litigation, health law, corporate and business planning, including all aspects of planning for the succession of business interests, representation of closely held businesses and their owners, and representation of physicians in their individual and group practices. She is a cum laude graduate of the Western New England University School of Law where she was a member of the Law Review and Boston University, where she first earned her bachelor of science summa cum laude and later a master of laws in taxation.

This full day conference will be held at The Hotel Northampton, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Thursday, June 16. To register visit mcle.org/store/cart. MCLE will offer a new lawyers discount for attorneys who were admitted after 2013 and law students.
