

Attorney Steven Weiss selected as panelist for 17th Annual Western Mass. Bankruptcy Symposium

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. – Regional law firm, Shatz, Schwartz and Fentin, P.C., which serves clients throughout western New England and New York, is happy to announce that Attorney Steven Weiss has been chosen to serve as a panelist at the 17th Annual Western Mass. Bankruptcy Symposium to be held at the Western New England School of Law on Tuesday, November 6 from 4 to 7 p.m.

The event, presented by the Massachusetts Bar Association \(MBA\), will feature practical discussions regarding problems facing bankruptcy practitioners and interactive sessions relating to Chapter 7 issues, case law updates and a State of the District discussion.

“Bankruptcy law and the issues surrounding it are ever-changing,” said Attorney Weiss. “I’m delighted to participate in this symposium to help educate fellow legal professionals about the latest developments and how to best represent creditors and debtors in their cases.”

Attorney Weiss, a resident of Longmeadow, concentrates his practice in the areas of commercial and consumer bankruptcy, reorganization and litigation. He represents creditors, debtors and others in both commercial and consumer bankruptcy cases throughout Massachusetts. Attorney Weiss has been on the panel of Chapter 7 trustees since 1987 and has been recognized for his legal success by selection to the Super Lawyers® list (2007–2018) and Best Lawyers® in America (2013–2019). He holds membership with the Hampden County and Massachusetts bar associations, the American Bankruptcy Institute and the National Association of Bankruptcy Trustees.

The MBA is a private, non-profit professional organization that represents a diverse group of attorneys, judges and legal professionals. Members of the MBA may attend the event for free, while members of Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden, Hampshire and Worcester County bar associations who are not MBA members can enjoy a special discounted rate.

For more information and to register for the event, contact the Massachusetts Bar Association Member Service Center at (617) 338-0530.
